
I. INTRODUCTION
   A. Scenario
   B. Scope in Statistics
   C. Scope in Costs
   D. On the Rise
   E. Laws in States
   F. Kentucky’s has problems
   G. Here’s What I’m going to do

II. HISTORY (of problem/of the law)
   A. Common Law
   B. Recent legislation in Ky
      1. 1893
      2. 1906
      3. 1954
   C. Current Law

III. ANALYSIS
   A. Plain Language of KRS xxx.xxx suggests Strict Liability
   B. KRS yyy.yyy Expand Definition of Owner
      1. “Owner”
      2. Law should be strictly construed
   C. Dykes v. Alexander case (the leading case)
      1. Facts
      2. Case turns on interpretation of KRS xxx.xxx
      3. Court examines prior cases
      4. Court looks at key California case
      5. Critique of flaws in Court’s analysis
   D. Critical Analysis of Modern [Ky.] Dog Bite Cases
      1. Ireland (all these cases have multiple grafs breaking down case)
      2. Jordan
      3. Carmichael
   E. Public Policy Requires a Liberal Interpretation
      1. Strict Liability Elicits Responsibility
      2. Dog Owners Are In Best Position to Carry Costs of Dog Bite Damages

IV. RESOLUTION [Here’s how to fix this …]
   A. Kentucky Legislature Should Change Statute
   B. (Five paragraphs discussing how)

V. CONCLUSION
   1. Paragraph briefly summarizing problem & law
   2. Paragraph summarizing what I say must be done.