Finding Aid for the Henry Whitestone (1819–1893) Collection

Title: Henry Whitestone Collection
Date Span: 1939–1944
Extent: 1.0 linear feet ; 1 box
Language(s): English
Copyright:

Description: Irish born Henry Whitestone was a prominent architect in Louisville who designed many of the buildings in the city on Main Street and beyond.

Folder 1
- Original manuscript for thesis by Douglas Miller, 1946.

Folder 2
- Image from the Louisville Times dated June 5, 1939 of the Newcomb House which became St. X High School at a later date.
- Note from Brother George Francis from St. X High School to Miss Williams of the Fine Arts Department about an engraving of the original building (Newcomb House)
- Image of the Cross School 924 South Fourth Street
- Letter from Mrs. Edward Davis Morton to Dr. Jacobson dated October 1944.
- Letter from Dr. Jacobson to Mrs. Morton dated October 1944.
- Various notes about Whitestone

Folder 3
- Manuscript by Douglas Morton titled “Architecture, Old and New.”