Finding Aid for the Enid Yandell (1870-1934) Collection

Title: Enid Yandell Collection
Date Span: (n.d.)
Extent: .1 linear feet; 1 folder
Language(s): n/a
Copyright:

Description: Enid Yandell was a sculptor born in Louisville who studied with Auguste Rodin and Frederick William MacMonnies. Her work is throughout the city of Louisville with her Statue of Pan at Hogan’s Fountain at Cherokee Park and Daniel Boone sculpture at entrance to the park.

1. A bust of a female, back of photo has the word “May” handwritten, 19cm x 24cm
2. Carrie Brown Memorial Fountain (front), 20cm x 25cm
3. Carrie Brown Memorial Fountain (right), 20cm x 25cm
4. Carrie Brown Memorial Fountain (back), 20cm x 25cm
5. Carrie Brown Memorial Fountain (left), 20cm x 25cm